These Instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of § 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Instructions for Proof of Claim

United States Bankruptcy Court

12/15

These instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of January 29, 2019.

- Attach any supporting documents to this form. Attach redacted copies of any documents that show that the debt exists, a lien secures the debt, or both. (See the definition of redaction on the next page.)

Also attach redacted copies of any documents that show perfection of any security interest or any assignments or transfers of the debt. In addition to the documents, a summary may be added. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (called "Bankruptcy Rule") 3001(c) and (d).

- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, do not disclose confidential health care information. Leave out or redact confidential information both in the claim and in the attached documents.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of § 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Chapter 11

(Lead Case)

(Jointly Administered)

CLAIM NO. IFNIH27386 (as amended)

DECLARATION OF KARYN
CHARMBURY IN SUPPORT OF
HER PROOF OF CLAIM

18
19
20
21 I, Karyn Charmbury, declare:

22 1. If called upon to testify as to the matters set forth herein, I would do so with personal 23 knowledge thereof except where otherwise stated on information and belief, competently, and 24 substantially as set forth hereinbelow. My name is Karyn Charmbury. I was formerly known as 25 Karyn Newmark. For identification purposes, the last four digits of my social security number are 26 1921. I am an adult and of sound mind. I currently reside in the City of Oroville, Butte County,
27 State of California and have been residing there at all times in question since 2001.
28

1 2. On or around December 1, 2008, I began full-time employment with the Debtor Pacific Gas
2 and Electric Company, Inc., a California corporation ("Debtor"). I was fully employed by Debtor
3 at all times in question until I left Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018, and went to work full-time
4 for the Sacramento Municipal Utility District ("SMUD"). I would have preferred to continue my
5 employ with Debtor until I had reached my targeted retirement age of 55 years. On March 9, 2018,
6 I was 34 years of age. My birthday is in _____. However, due to the hostile work environment
7 which had been intentionally created by management of Debtor's department in which I had
8 worked, I had no choice but to find employment elsewhere.¹ The department was called the 9 "Department of Substation Inspections" (the "department"). The hostile work environment was 10 created by the retaliation I was subjected to because my significant other was a former employee of 11 the Debtor and who was employed in the same department I worked in until he was terminated for 12 cause in August 2015. His name is Mark Makowiecki ("Mark"). I first met Mark in or around
13 August 2014 and we became involved with each other romantically in or around September 2014
14 and began living together in or around January 2015. We have been in a relationship at all times in 15 question since then. This relationship was known to management of the department from almost 16 the time it began as was the fact we were living together. The chain of management in the 17 department at the time was the same for both myself and Mark, reporting to Brandon Champion,
18 who reported to Scott Hayes, who reported to Mike Novello, the superintendent and head of the 19 department.² After Mark left the employ of Debtor, he became involved in various administrative 20 actions and litigation actions involving Debtor. He complained of the actions of the three said
21 individuals.
22
23
24

25 _____
26 ¹ I began work in the department as an inspector on a temporary basis in or around September 2014. However, since
27 that time and at all times in question until March 9, 2018, I worked in the department. In June or July 2015 I was 28 considered a permanent inspector with the department.

² Mike Novello was the superintendent of the department at all times that I was with the department. Eventually,
Scott Hayes was replaced by Eric Harris. However, my work environment did not improve but became worse as I was blamed for Scott Hayes being removed as a supervisor after I had lodged a complaint with the "HR" department of the Debtor. Mr. Hayes continued working in the department but in a non-supervisor capacity.

1 3. Retaliation also occurred because I had gone to "HR" of the Debtor on more than one
2 occasion to complain of my treatment by management of the department. Retaliation also
3 occurred by management of the department because I had filed a dual complaint with the
4 California Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH") and the Equal Employment
5 Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") alleging gender/sex discrimination and discrimination with
6 respect to being pregnant and breast feeding resulting in disparate treatment. For example, after
7 giving birth and returning to work after a three-month maternity leave, I was given jobs that
8 interfered with my ability to breast feed my infant. For example, I was given a job that required at 9 least a three-hour one-way commute, or six hours each work-day. Management of the department
10 was made aware of my desire to breast feed my infant and knew that I was trying to nurse my 11 infant.

13 4. During the time I was a member of the department, out of a total work force of around 75
14 individuals, only 4 at most were female. Other then for a couple of months when a female was 15 brought in under contract to report directly to Mr. Novello, an Amanda Clark, no leadership
16 positions in the department were filled by women.
17

18 5. While working in the department I became pregnant and had a child with Mark, giving birth
19 in August 2016.

20 6. On April 25, 2017, I filed a complaint with the California Department of Fair Housing and
21 Employment ("DFEH") which was dual filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity
22 Commission ("EEOC"). The DFEH administrative case, Matter No. 778850-273543, was closed
23 on April 10, 2018, due to insufficient evidence. By that time, I had left the employ of Debtor and 24 was working full-time for my current employer, SMUD. Since starting work with SMUD several
25 days after leaving the Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018, my focus was on my new job and since
26 it was a new job, I was on probationary status for at least six months. The DFEH also issued a
27 right to sue letter dated April 10, 2018, which right existed for 12 months from said date. No such 28

1 suit was filed within said time period prior to the time of the bankruptcy filing of Debtor on
2 January 29, 2019, which filing was within the time of my right to sue. I am unsure as to what
3 happened in the EEOC administrative case, EEOC Number 37A-2017-01999-C, but I am
4 informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the right to sue associated with my EEOC
5 complaint had likely as well not expired prior to the filing of the bankruptcy on January 29, 2019.

6 7. While this administrative action was pending, Mark was embroiled in litigation with the 7 Debtor, which was putting a financial strain on the family. This caused me to consider at the time
8 whether I wanted to pursue further action against the Debtor. In or around November 2018, Mark
9 finally ended his litigation efforts with Debtor via settlement of a case that Mark had initiated
10 against the Debtor in San Francisco County Superior Court on January 8, 2018, following
11 dismissal of his earlier action against the Debtor in United States District Court, Eastern District of 12 California, which he had commenced on August 6, 2017.³ Management of the department was 13 aware of this litigation. Allegations in the complaints filed in federal and state court named
14 Messrs. Champion, Hayes, and Novello.

16 8. I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that I am making claim under 17 California common law for constructive wrongful termination of employment, the filing of which
18 is subject to a two-year statute of limitations under state law. I am informed by counsel and
19 believe and thereon state that upon the Debtor's filing bankruptcy, the statute of limitations for 20 this claim was tolled.

22 9. It has become clear to me since working for SMUD that my compensation at SMUD will
23 never catch up or exceed what I was making working for Debtor and that this state of affairs will 24 exist for the entire time I will be working for SMUD until reaching my planned retirement age of 25 55.
26

27
28 ³ I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the filing was just prior to expiration of the two-year statute of limitations for a wrongful termination of employment claim.

1 10. I calculate the amount of my claim as follows (figures used are rounded). My 2017
2 compensation from the Debtor was $135,000.00.⁴ It was the practice of Debtor and had been the
3 practice of Debtor for employees such as me to get annual compensation increases of 3%.
4 Therefore, the 2018 compensation had I stayed in the employ of Debtor was approximated at
5 $139,050.00. In March of 2018, my compensation for SMUD was approximately $108,000.00.⁵
6 SMUD had similar annual pay raises as did Debtor at approximately 3%. The retirement age for
7 both being age 55, therefore, twenty-one years from my age in March 2018 of 34, making the year
8 in question for my expected retirement being March 2039. The annual price differential in 2018
9 being $31,050.00 [$$139,050.00 - $108,000.00$] increasing 3% each year compounded annually
10 until 2039. The sum of the price differentials for twenty-one years at 3% compounded annually is 11 $890,404.87. Discounting that sum to present value (as of March 2018) is $478,636.55 using a
12 discount factor of 3% which was the IRS discount factor in March 2018, as I am informed by 13 counsel, believe, and thereon state. As a comparison, the inflation rate in 2018 was 1.9% and the 14 "fed funds" rate in 2018 was 2.5%, as I am again informed by counsel, believe, and thereon state.
15 I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the discount factor usually reflects
16 risk (the greater the risk the greater the discount) but can also be a combination of covering the 17 inflation rate to protect the time value of money plus covering for lost opportunity cost in the 18 terms of investments forgone as the result of not having the money.
19

21 11. From March 9, 2018, to the time of the filing of bankruptcy on January 29, 2019, was
22 approximately 10.5 months. I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the legal
23 rate of interest is 10% per annum. Therefore, I calculate the interest from March 9, 2018, to the 24 filing of the bankruptcy on January 29, 2019, as $41,880.53. The total claim is therefore 25 $520,517.08.
26

27
28

⁴ 2017 W-2 $135,085.54.

1 12. My initial job with Debtor was utility worker. For six months, more or less, I apprenticed
2 as an electrician. In or around July 2012 I became a journeymen electrician. I began work in the
3 department in or around September 2014 as an electrical inspector and remained with the
4 department in that position at all times in question until leaving the employ of Debtor on March 9,
5 2018. My fellow female workers, numbering 4 out of 75 workers, in the department were also
6 electrical inspectors and during my entire time with the department not one of them, including me,
7 ever received a promotion nor were any of us put in a supervisory position, not even temporarily.

9 13. In or around April 2015, Mark began to run into trouble with Messrs. Champion, Hayes,
10 and Novello. Matters escalated for Mark until he was terminated for cause by Debtor on August
11 7, 2015, at the behest of Mr. Novello.

12 14. After losing his job with Debtor, and not represented by counsel, Mark filed a claim
13 against the Debtor with the National Labor Relations Board. Messrs. Hayes and Novello
14 submitted declarations in support of Debtor's opposition to Mark's claims, which claims were
15 dismissed for lack of evidence. Mark also filed claims against Debtor with the California
16 Department of Fair Housing and Employment and with the Equal Employment Opportunity
17 Commission for which he received right to sue letters. Management of the department was aware 18 of these administrative actions.

19
20 15. Represented by counsel, Mark initiated a PAGA class-action against the Debtor and PG&E
21 Corporation in the Butte County Superior Court. This matter concluded with settlement in August
22 2016 for which Mark was paid certain sums of money as lead plaintiff and as a member of the 23 class. Management of the department was aware of this litigation.

25 16. As Mark began experiencing problems with management, I began to notice I was being 26 made the subject of repeated harassment by Messrs. Champion, Hayes, and Novello that I hitherto

27
28 ⁵ 2018 W-2 $89,984.53 but only since March of 2018. Therefore, $$89,984.53 / 10 = $8,998.45$. Rounding to $9,000.00 per month x 12 = $108,000.00.

1 had not experienced before as an employee of Debtor. Mr. Champion was a close friend of Mr.
2 Novello. Mr. Novello also had his uncle working in the department, Greg Tellez. Matters
3 escalated after Mark was terminated and while he pursued his various administrative and litigation
4 actions. Mr. Champion has an identical twin brother who was also employed as an inspector in
5 the department. I would describe the department of consisting of a "good ol' boys" club or 6 network where certain males were favored over others and all females excluded without regard to 7 their performance or qualifications.

9 17. The following are examples of some of the incidents that occurred to me that I believe
10 illustrate the animus management of the department had to me as Mark's significant other and as a
11 woman who also happened to get pregnant with our child while I was working in the department:

12 a. January 2016, Vina Substation, Corning, California. Mr. Hayes visited the site as a "job site
13 observation," a site for which I was the inspector. During his visit, I was not present at the site.
14 Mr. Hayes said nothing negative to me about his observation of the site until four to five days later
15 when I received an email from him stating that I had let the contractors get out of control. This 16 critique later showed up on my employee evaluation prepared by Mr. Hayes. Such a critique had
17 never appeared before in any of my evaluations. Moreover, when I received the email, I had no
18 idea what he was communicating about. I responded to his email with an email objecting to this 19 critique, in so many words, asking him what he was talking about, an email he never responded to.

20
21 b. February 2016, Oroville substation, Oroville, California. Mr. Champion showed up at my
22 job site. He did not speak to me but to the contractor present, Aaron Dickson. I was in the job
23 trailer for the 10 to 15 minutes Mr. Champion was there speaking to Mr. Dickson. Later, after Mr.
24 Champion had left, Mr. Dickson told me that Mr. Champion had said to him, or with words to
25 such effect, was I of any help to him and did I ever come out of the job trailer, which comments I
26 found to be derogatory. Moreover, such comments I believed would hurt my credibility at the job
27 site as an inspector.
28

1 c. March 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. I arrived at the job site
2 in the morning. The gate to a farmer's pasture was open. The gate being the access point to get to
3 and from the substation. Apparently, the farmer's cows had allegedly gotten out. No one talked
4 to me about any cows having gotten out of the pasture. Apparently, the farmer contacted Mr.
5 Champion to complain. Mr. Champion contacted me and without any basis for doing so, accused
6 me of letting the farmer's cows out of the pasture. As it turned out, only one cow had gotten out.
7 This incident was negatively commented about in my evaluation report prepared by Scott Hayes.

9 d. May 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. I met the contractor at 10 the job site. The fence to the pasture had been cut open and the tool trailer of the Debtor had been 11 ransacked. The Yuba County Sheriff was called. In the meantime, the farmer had showed up and 12 was yelling angrily at us to fix his fence. No one counselled me and no one bothered to get my 13 side of the story. This incident was negatively commented upon in my evaluation report prepared
14 by Scott Hayes.

16 e. June 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. At the time of this
17 incident I was pregnant with our child. Mr. Champion arrived at the job site and informed me that
18 because of (sic) "my situation" I was being transferred to the Table Mountain Substation and 19 another inspector would take my place at the Browns Valley Substation. I emailed Mr. Hayes to 20 complain about the transfer. He stated that it was a judgment call by him and Mr. Champion and
21 that they had to look out for all team members. While the Table Mountain Substation was only 15
22 minutes or so drive from my home, unlike the Brown Valley Substation, which was a 45 minute or
23 so drive, all I did at the Table Mountain Substation was sit in an office. At the Brown Valley
24 Substation, I was much more involved in the work. I had not asked for this transfer. I had made
25 no complaints to anyone about my condition interfering with my work. However, I believe my 26 pregnancy was a stalking horse for Mr. Champion, who was blaming me for the troubles with the 27 farmer at the site, and wanted me gone, using my pregnancy as a pretext.
28

1 f. In June 2016, I contacted the Compliance and Ethics Department of Debtor to complain that
2 I had been removed from a job site simply because I was pregnant. Mr. Hayes called me the next
3 day screaming at me over the telephone saying to me that if every time I had a problem, I went
4 running to "HR," I would create more problems for myself, which I took to mean as a threat of
5 retaliation. He berated me for upwards of five minutes, I estimated, screaming and yelling at me
6 the whole time. I went home sick at my stomach, not being able to work for the rest of the day
7 because the phone call, which I found extremely stressful. The phone call reduced me to sobbing
8 after Mr. Hayes hung up. I was barely able to speak to others because of my sobbing. I was also 9 concerned about how such stress would negatively impact my pregnancy. I contacted "HR" and
10 let them know of Mr. Hayes' telephone call to me despite him having warned me not to call "HR."
11 However, I never heard anything further from "HR" about my complaint before taking my 12 scheduled maternity leave in June 2016. While on maternity leave, "HR" sent me an email stating
13 that after following up with Mr. Hayes, there was no evidence to support your complaint. I did not
14 return to work until November 1, 2016.

17 g. November 30, 2016, Tres Vias Substation, Oroville, California. Mr. Novello came to the 18 jobsite to give me compliance and ethics training (this was a first while I working in the 19 department; usually, such training was done in a group setting). The "training session" lasted
20 about an hour. After the session, Mr. Novello told me that if problems arose with Mr. Brandon or 21 Mr. Hayes, I was to call him instead of calling "HR." He told me that Mr. Hayes had gotten into 22 trouble because of my contacting "HR" about him. The gist I took from this comment was that I
23 was to keep any problems I had "in-house."

24
25 h. January 2017, Carbona Substation, Tracy, California. I was assigned this substation as an
26 inspector despite it requiring a one-way commute time of at least three hours. However, there was 27 nothing to do at this substation. I knew that the Colgate Substation near Dobbins, California, was 28 only a 30 minute or so drive from my house and had more work to do. I let management know

1 this. Management did nothing. The inspector at the Colgate Substation was staying at a hotel in
2 Oroville, California, while working at the site. Management knew this.

3 i. In March 2017, I asked for a meeting with Mr. Novello at the Arbuckle Substation in
4 Arbuckle, California. I wanted to go over my 2016 year-end evaluation report with him because
5 of the adverse comments put into the report by Scott Hayes, the Vina Substation observation
6 results and the Browns Valley Substation complaints by the farmer. The meeting took place as
7 requested. Nothing resulted from the meeting. The adverse comments in my evaluation report
8 remained.

10 18. My employee evaluations reports for 2015 (year-end) and 2016 (mid-year and year-end)
11 were written by Scott Hayes. Eric Harris wrote my employee evaluation reports for mid-year and 12 year-end 2017. Eric Harris also wrote what would be my final employee evaluation report (final 13 evaluation as known to me since I left Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018). The review date for
14 my 2017 year- end performance review was February 1, 2018. This is when Mr. Harris and I sat
15 down together and went over the 2017 evaluation report. On February 9, 2018, I appealed the 16 evaluations made by Mr. Harris in the report. In talking to the males of the department about their
17 evaluations, I realized that I had been rated below all of them and received a smaller raise and
18 "stip," which stands for "short term incentive program" also commonly referred to as the annual 19 employee bonus. I had been rated below all of them even though my targets were very similar to 20 their targets. At the time, I was the only woman under the supervision of Mr. Harris.⁶ This
21 incident was the "final straw" for me. Despite my "HR" complaints and my complaints with the
22 DFEH and EEOC, nothing seemed to be improving but, rather, appeared to be getting worse.⁷
23
24

25 19. The Debtor PG&E Corporation caused the publication of information which was then 26

27 ⁶ He had 13 individuals, including me, working under him at the time.

28 ⁷ In July 2018, higher ups (over the department) changed the rating that Mr. Harris had given me with an improved rating of "target" but by that time I had left the employ of Debtor. The earlier rating Mr. Harris had given me was "below target." This improved rating resulted in additional compensation being paid to me (the difference between the "stip" bonus I should have received vs. the bonus I had earlier received).

1 disseminated to employees of the Debtor. For example, Compliance and Ethics called "Speaking
2 Up." This particular publication states in bold print "At PG&E, retaliation is not tolerated."
3 "Retaliation" is defined as "...adversely changing an employee's condition of employment for a
4 non-business reason." Other examples of publications by Debtor PG&E Corporation for
5 employees of Debtor are the "Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Policy"
6 dated March 20, 2017, published by the Debtor PG&E Corporation; the "Standard for a
7 Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation-Free Workplace" dated January 2017 published by
8 PG&E Corporation; a promulgation of March 2017 to all PG&E employees issued by Geisha J.
9 Williams, CEO, PG&E Corporation; "Employee Conduct Standard," Corporation Standard: CDT-
10 1004S, published December 5, 2017, by PG&E Corporation; "Nepotism Policy," Corporation
11 Policy: HR-01 dated January 1, 2017, revision 2, published by PG&E Corporation; a job
12 description of "Lead Electrical Inspector" of Debtor published by PG&E Corporation with a job
13 posting date of December 14, 2015, Mr. Novello hiring supervisor, within which is a declaration
14 of non-discrimination; and a job description of "Transmission Construction Inspector, SR"⁸ of 15 Debtor published by PG&E Corporation with a job posting date of December 11, 2015, Mr.
16 Novello hiring supervisor, within which is a declaration of non-discrimination. I am informed by 17 counsel and believe and thereon state that the non-discrimination prohibition as to various discrete
18 groups therein identified is much broader than federal and state laws then existing but nevertheless
19 may be subject to contract law between Debtor and a job applicant responding to the job postings,
20 or as an employee if hired by the Debtor pursuant to the job postings, and in any event, Mr.
21 Novello being bound by the non-discrimination policies of Debtor as set forth in the job postings.⁹
22 The job postings also affirms, promises, and represents that the Debtor is an Affirmative Action
23 and Equal Employment Opportunity employer "that actively pursues and hires a diverse

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct except for those matters stated on my information and belief and as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of § 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Bankruptcy Case No. 19-30088 (DM)

Chapter 11

(Lead Case)

(Jointly Administered)

CLAIM NO. IFNIH27386 (as amended)

DECLARATION OF KARYN

20
21 I, Karyn Charmbury, declare:

22 1. If called upon to testify as to the matters set forth herein, I would do so with personal
23 knowledge thereof except where otherwise stated on information and belief, competently, and 24 substantially as set forth hereinbelow. My name is Karyn Charmbury. I was formerly known as
25 Karyn Newmark. For identification purposes, the last four digits of my social security number are
26 1921. I am an adult and of sound mind. I currently reside in the City of Oroville, Butte County,
27 State of California and have been residing there at all times in question since 2001.
28

1 2. On or around December 1, 2008, I began full-time employment with the Debtor Pacific Gas
2 and Electric Company, Inc., a California corporation ("Debtor"). I was fully employed by Debtor
3 at all times in question until I left Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018, and went to work full-time
4 for the Sacramento Municipal Utility District ("SMUD"). I would have preferred to continue my
5 employ with Debtor until I had reached my targeted retirement age of 55 years. On March 9, 2018,
6 I was 34 years of age. My birthday is in _____. However, due to the hostile work environment
7 which had been intentionally created by management of Debtor's department in which I had
8 worked, I had no choice but to find employment elsewhere.¹ The department was called the
9 "Department of Substation Inspections" (the "department"). The hostile work environment was
10 created by the retaliation I was subjected to because my significant other was a former employee of
11 the Debtor and who was employed in the same department I worked in until he was terminated for 12 cause in August 2015. His name is Mark Makowiecki ("Mark"). I first met Mark in or around
13 August 2014 and we became involved with each other romantically in or around September 2014
14 and began living together in or around January 2015. We have been in a relationship at all times in 15 question since then. This relationship was known to management of the department from almost 16 the time it began as was the fact we were living together. The chain of management in the 17 department at the time was the same for both myself and Mark, reporting to Brandon Champion,
18 who reported to Scott Hayes, who reported to Mike Novello, the superintendent and head of the 19 department.² After Mark left the employ of Debtor, he become involved in various administrative
20 actions and litigation actions involving Debtor. He complained of the actions of the three said
21 individuals.
22
23
24

25 _____
26 ¹ I began work in the department as an inspector on a temporary basis in or around September 2014. However, since
27 that time and at all times in question until March 9, 2018, I worked in the department. In June or July 2015 I was 28 considered a permanent inspector with the department.

² Mike Novello was the superintendent of the department at all times that I was with the department. Eventually,
Scott Hayes was replaced by Eric Harris. However, my work environment did not improve but became worse as I was blamed for Scott Hayes being removed as a supervisor after I had lodged a complaint with the "HR" department of the Debtor. Mr. Hayes continued working in the department but in a non-supervisor capacity.

1 3. Retaliation also occurred because I had gone to "HR" of the Debtor on more than one
2 occasion to complain of my treatment by management of the department. Retaliation also
3 occurred by management of the department because I had filed a dual complaint with the
4 California Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH") and the Equal Employment
5 Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") alleging gender/sex discrimination and discrimination with
6 respect to being pregnant and breast feeding resulting in disparate treatment. For example, after
7 giving birth and returning to work after a three-month maternity leave, I was given jobs that
8 interfered with my ability to breast feed my infant. For example, I was given a job that required at 9 least a three-hour one-way commute, or six hours each work-day. Management of the department
10 was made aware of my desire to breast feed my infant and knew that I was trying to nurse my 11 infant.
12

13 4. During the time I was a member of the department, out of a total work force of around 75
14 individuals, only 4 at most were female. Other then for a couple of months when a female was
15 brought in under contract to report directly to Mr. Novello, an Amanda Clark, no leadership
16 positions in the department were filled by women.
17

18 5. While working in the department I became pregnant and had a child with Mark, giving birth
19 in August 2016.

20 6. On April 25, 2017, I filed a complaint with the California Department of Fair Housing and
21 Employment ("DFEH") which was dual filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity
22 Commission ("EEOC"). The DFEH administrative case, Matter No. 778850-273543, was closed
23 on April 10, 2018, due to insufficient evidence. By that time, I had left the employ of Debtor and
24 was working full-time for my current employer, SMUD. Since starting work with SMUD several
25 days after leaving the Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018, my focus was on my new job and since
26 it was a new job, I was on probationary status for at least six months. The DFEH also issued a
27 right to sue letter dated April 10, 2018, which right existed for 12 months from said date. No such 28

1 suit was filed within said time period prior to the time of the bankruptcy filing of Debtor on
2 January 29, 2019, which filing was within the time of my right to sue. I am unsure as to what
3 happened in the EEOC administrative case, EEOC Number 37A-2017-01999-C, but I am
4 informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the right to sue associated with my EEOC
5 complaint had likely as well not expired prior to the filing of the bankruptcy on January 29, 2019.

6 7. While this administrative action was pending, Mark was embroiled in litigation with the 7 Debtor, which was putting a financial strain on the family. This caused me to consider at the time
8 whether I wanted to pursue further action against the Debtor. In or around November 2018, Mark
9 finally ended his litigation efforts with Debtor via settlement of a case that Mark had initiated
10 against the Debtor in San Francisco County Superior Court on January 8, 2018, following
11 dismissal of his earlier action against the Debtor in United States District Court, Eastern District of
12 California, which he had commenced on August 6, 2017.³ Management of the department was 13 aware of this litigation. Allegations in the complaints filed in federal and state court named
14 Messrs. Champion, Hayes, and Novello.
15

16 8. I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that I am making claim under 17 California common law for constructive wrongful termination of employment, the filing of which
18 is subject to a two-year statute of limitations under state law. I am informed by counsel and
19 believe and thereon state that upon the Debtor's filing bankruptcy, the statute of limitations for 20 this claim was tolled.
21

22 9. It has become clear to me since working for SMUD that my compensation at SMUD will
23 never catch up or exceed what I was making working for Debtor and that this state of affairs will
24 exist for the entire time I will be working for SMUD until reaching my planned retirement age of 25 55.
26

27
28 ³ I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the filing was just prior to expiration of the two-year statute of limitations for a wrongful termination of employment claim.

1 10. I calculate the amount of my claim as follows (figures used are rounded). My 2017
2 compensation from the Debtor was $135,000.00.⁴ It was the practice of Debtor and had been the
3 practice of Debtor for employees such as me to get annual compensation increases of 3%.
4 Therefore, the 2018 compensation had I stayed in the employ of Debtor was approximated at
5 $139,050.00. In March of 2018, my compensation for SMUD was approximately $108,000.00.⁵
6 SMUD had similar annual pay raises as did Debtor at approximately 3%. The retirement age for
7 both being age 55, therefore, twenty-one years from my age in March 2018 of 34, making the year
8 in question for my expected retirement being March 2039. The annual price differential in 2018
9 being $31,050.00 [$139,050.00 - $108,000.00] increasing 3% each year compounded annually
10 until 2039. The sum of the price differentials for twenty-one years at 3% compounded annually is
11 $890,404.87. Discounting that sum to present value (as of March 2018) is $478,636.55 using a
12 discount factor of 3% which was the IRS discount factor in March 2018, as I am informed by 13 counsel, believe, and thereon state. As a comparison, the inflation rate in 2018 was 1.9% and the 14 "fed funds" rate in 2018 was 2.5%, as I am again informed by counsel, believe, and thereon state.
15 I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the discount factor usually reflects
16 risk (the greater the risk the greater the discount) but can also be a combination of covering the
17 inflation rate to protect the time value of money plus covering for lost opportunity cost in the 18 terms of investments forgone as the result of not having the money.
19

21 11. From March 9, 2018, to the time of the filing of bankruptcy on January 29, 2019, was
22 approximately 10.5 months. I am informed by counsel and believe and thereon state that the legal
23 rate of interest is 10% per annum. Therefore, I calculate the interest from March 9, 2018, to the 24 filing of the bankruptcy on January 29, 2019, as $41,880.53. The total claim is therefore 25 $520,517.08.
26
27
28

⁴ 2017 W-2 $135,085.54.

1 12. My initial job with Debtor was utility worker. For six months, more or less, I apprenticed
2 as an electrician. In or around July 2012 I became a journeymen electrician. I began work in the
3 department in or around September 2014 as an electrical inspector and remained with the
4 department in that position at all times in question until leaving the employ of Debtor on March 9,
5 2018. My fellow female workers, numbering 4 out of 75 workers, in the department were also
6 electrical inspectors and during my entire time with the department not one of them, including me,
7 ever received a promotion nor were any of us put in a supervisory position, not even temporarily.

9 13. In or around April 2015, Mark began to run into trouble with Messrs. Champion, Hayes,
10 and Novello. Matters escalated for Mark until he was terminated for cause by Debtor on August
11 7, 2015, at the behest of Mr. Novello.

12 14. After losing his job with Debtor, and not represented by counsel, Mark filed a claim
13 against the Debtor with the National Labor Relations Board. Messrs. Hayes and Novello
14 submitted declarations in support of Debtor's opposition to Mark's claims, which claims were
15 dismissed for lack of evidence. Mark also filed claims against Debtor with the California
16 Department of Fair Housing and Employment and with the Equal Employment Opportunity
17 Commission for which he received right to sue letters. Management of the department was aware 18 of these administrative actions.
19

20 15. Represented by counsel, Mark initiated a PAGA class-action against the Debtor and PG&E
21 Corporation in the Butte County Superior Court. This matter concluded with settlement in August
22 2016 for which Mark was paid certain sums of money as lead plaintiff and as a member of the 23 class. Management of the department was aware of this litigation.
24

25 16. As Mark began experiencing problems with management, I began to notice I was being
26 made the subject of repeated harassment by Messrs. Champion, Hayes, and Novello that I hitherto

28 ⁵ 2018 W-2 $89,984.53 but only since March of 2018. Therefore, $$89,984.53 / 10 = $8,998.45$. Rounding to $9,000.00 per month x 12 = $108,000.00.

1 had not experienced before as an employee of Debtor. Mr. Champion was a close friend of Mr.
2 Novello. Mr. Novello also had his uncle working in the department, Greg Tellez. Matters
3 escalated after Mark was terminated and while he pursued his various administrative and litigation
4 actions. Mr. Champion has an identical twin brother who was also employed as an inspector in
5 the department. I would describe the department of consisting of a "good ol' boys" club or 6 network where certain males were favored over others and all females excluded without regard to 7 their performance or qualifications.

9 17. The following are examples of some of the incidents that occurred to me that I believe
10 illustrate the animus management of the department had to me as Mark's significant other and as a
11 woman who also happened to get pregnant with our child while I was working in the department:

12 a. January 2016, Vina Substation, Corning, California. Mr. Hayes visited the site as a "job site
13 observation," a site for which I was the inspector. During his visit, I was not present at the site.
14 Mr. Hayes said nothing negative to me about his observation of the site until four to five days later
15 when I received an email from him stating that I had let the contractors get out of control. This
16 critique later showed up on my employee evaluation prepared by Mr. Hayes. Such a critique had
17 never appeared before in any of my evaluations. Moreover, when I received the email, I had no
18 idea what he was communicating about. I responded to his email with an email objecting to this
19 critique, in so many words, asking him what he was talking about, an email he never responded to.

20
21 b. February 2016, Oroville substation, Oroville, California. Mr. Champion showed up at my
22 job site. He did not speak to me but to the contractor present, Aaron Dickson. I was in the job
23 trailer for the 10 to 15 minutes Mr. Champion was there speaking to Mr. Dickson. Later, after Mr.
24 Champion had left, Mr. Dickson told me that Mr. Champion had said to him, or with words to
25 such effect, was I of any help to him and did I ever come out of the job trailer, which comments I
26 found to be derogatory. Moreover, such comments I believed would hurt my credibility at the job
27 site as an inspector.
28

1 c. March 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. I arrived at the job site
2 in the morning. The gate to a farmer's pasture was open. The gate being the access point to get to
3 and from the substation. Apparently, the farmer's cows had allegedly gotten out. No one talked
4 to me about any cows having gotten out of the pasture. Apparently, the farmer contacted Mr.
5 Champion to complain. Mr. Champion contacted me and without any basis for doing so, accused
6 me of letting the farmer's cows out of the pasture. As it turned out, only one cow had gotten out.
7 This incident was negatively commented about in my evaluation report prepared by Scott Hayes.

9 d. May 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. I met the contractor at 10 the job site. The fence to the pasture had been cut open and the tool trailer of the Debtor had been 11 ransacked. The Yuba County Sheriff was called. In the meantime, the farmer had showed up and 12 was yelling angrily at us to fix his fence. No one counselled me and no one bothered to get my 13 side of the story. This incident was negatively commented upon in my evaluation report prepared
14 by Scott Hayes.

15
16 e. June 2016, Browns Valley Substation, Browns Valley, California. At the time of this
17 incident I was pregnant with our child. Mr. Champion arrived at the job site and informed me that
18 because of (sic) "my situation" I was being transferred to the Table Mountain Substation and 19 another inspector would take my place at the Browns Valley Substation. I emailed Mr. Hayes to 20 complain about the transfer. He stated that it was a judgment call by him and Mr. Champion and
21 that they had to look out for all team members. While the Table Mountain Substation was only 15
22 minutes or so drive from my home, unlike the Brown Valley Substation, which was a 45 minute or
23 so drive, all I did at the Table Mountain Substation was sit in an office. At the Brown Valley
24 Substation, I was much more involved in the work. I had not asked for this transfer. I had made
25 no complaints to anyone about my condition interfering with my work. However, I believe my 26 pregnancy was a stalking horse for Mr. Champion, who was blaming me for the troubles with the 27 farmer at the site, and wanted me gone, using my pregnancy as a pretext.
28

1 f. In June 2016, I contacted the Compliance and Ethics Department of Debtor to complain that
2 I had been removed from a job site simply because I was pregnant. Mr. Hayes called me the next
3 day screaming at me over the telephone saying to me that if every time I had a problem, I went
4 running to "HR," I would create more problems for myself, which I took to mean as a threat of
5 retaliation. He berated me for upwards of five minutes, I estimated, screaming and yelling at me
6 the whole time. I went home sick at my stomach, not being able to work for the rest of the day
7 because the phone call, which I found extremely stressful. The phone call reduced me to sobbing
8 after Mr. Hayes hung up. I was barely able to speak to others because of my sobbing. I was also
9 concerned about how such stress would negatively impact my pregnancy. I contacted "HR" and
10 let them know of Mr. Hayes' telephone call to me despite him having warned me not to call "HR."
11 However, I never heard anything further from "HR" about my complaint before taking my 12 scheduled maternity leave in June 2016. While on maternity leave, "HR" sent me an email stating
13 that after following up with Mr. Hayes, there was no evidence to support your complaint. I did not
14 return to work until November 1, 2016.

15
17 g. November 30, 2016, Tres Vias Substation, Oroville, California. Mr. Novello came to the 18 jobsite to give me compliance and ethics training (this was a first while I working in the 19 department; usually, such training was done in a group setting). The "training session" lasted
20 about an hour. After the session, Mr. Novello told me that if problems arose with Mr. Brandon or 21 Mr. Hayes, I was to call him instead of calling "HR." He told me that Mr. Hayes had gotten into
22 trouble because of my contacting "HR" about him. The gist I took from this comment was that I
23 was to keep any problems I had "in-house."

24
25 h. January 2017, Carbona Substation, Tracy, California. I was assigned this substation as an
26 inspector despite it requiring a one-way commute time of at least three hours. However, there was 27 nothing to do at this substation. I knew that the Colgate Substation near Dobbins, California, was
28 only a 30 minute or so drive from my house and had more work to do. I let management know

1 this. Management did nothing. The inspector at the Colgate Substation was staying at a hotel in
2 Oroville, California, while working at the site. Management knew this.

3 i. In March 2017, I asked for a meeting with Mr. Novello at the Arbuckle Substation in
4 Arbuckle, California. I wanted to go over my 2016 year-end evaluation report with him because
5 of the adverse comments put into the report by Scott Hayes, the Vina Substation observation
6 results and the Browns Valley Substation complaints by the farmer. The meeting took place as
7 requested. Nothing resulted from the meeting. The adverse comments in my evaluation report
8 remained.

10 18. My employee evaluations reports for 2015 (year-end) and 2016 (mid-year and year-end)
11 were written by Scott Hayes. Eric Harris wrote my employee evaluation reports for mid-year and
12 year-end 2017. Eric Harris also wrote what would be my final employee evaluation report (final 13 evaluation as known to me since I left Debtor's employ on March 9, 2018). The review date for
14 my 2017 year- end performance review was February 1, 2018. This is when Mr. Harris and I sat
15 down together and went over the 2017 evaluation report. On February 9, 2018, I appealed the 16 evaluations made by Mr. Harris in the report. In talking to the males of the department about their
17 evaluations, I realized that I had been rated below all of them and received a smaller raise and
18 "stip," which stands for "short term incentive program" also commonly referred to as the annual 19 employee bonus. I had been rated below all of them even though my targets were very similar to 20 their targets. At the time, I was the only woman under the supervision of Mr. Harris.⁶ This
21 incident was the "final straw" for me. Despite my "HR" complaints and my complaints with the
22 DFEH and EEOC, nothing seemed to be improving but, rather, appeared to be getting worse.⁷
23
24

25 19. The Debtor PG&E Corporation caused the publication of information which was then 26

27 ⁶ He had 13 individuals, including me, working under him at the time.

28 ⁷ In July 2018, higher ups (over the department) changed the rating that Mr. Harris had given me with an improved rating of "target" but by that time I had left the employ of Debtor. The earlier rating Mr. Harris had given me was "below target." This improved rating resulted in additional compensation being paid to me (the difference between the "stip" bonus I should have received vs. the bonus I had earlier received).

1 disseminated to employees of the Debtor. For example, Compliance and Ethics called "Speaking
2 Up." This particular publication states in bold print "At PG&E, retaliation is not tolerated."
3 "Retaliation" is defined as "...adversely changing an employee's condition of employment for a
4 non-business reason." Other examples of publications by Debtor PG&E Corporation for
5 employees of Debtor are the "Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Policy"
6 dated March 20, 2017, published by the Debtor PG&E Corporation; the "Standard for a
7 Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation-Free Workplace" dated January 2017 published by
8 PG&E Corporation; a promulgation of March 2017 to all PG&E employees issued by Geisha J.
9 Williams, CEO, PG&E Corporation; "Employee Conduct Standard," Corporation Standard: CDT-
10 1004S, published December 5, 2017, by PG&E Corporation; "Nepotism Policy," Corporation
11 Policy: HR-01 dated January 1, 2017, revision 2, published by PG&E Corporation; a job
12 description of "Lead Electrical Inspector" of Debtor published by PG&E Corporation with a job
13 posting date of December 14, 2015, Mr. Novello hiring supervisor, within which is a declaration
14 of non-discrimination; and a job description of "Transmission Construction Inspector, SR"⁸ of 15 Debtor published by PG&E Corporation with a job posting date of December 11, 2015, Mr.
16 Novello hiring supervisor, within which is a declaration of non-discrimination. I am informed by
17 counsel and believe and thereon state that the non-discrimination prohibition as to various discrete
18 groups therein identified is much broader than federal and state laws then existing but nevertheless
19 may be subject to contract law between Debtor and a job applicant responding to the job postings,
20 or as an employee if hired by the Debtor pursuant to the job postings, and in any event, Mr.
21 Novello being bound by the non-discrimination policies of Debtor as set forth in the job postings.⁹
22 The job postings also affirms, promises, and represents that the Debtor is an Affirmative Action
23 and Equal Employment Opportunity employer "that actively pursues and hires a diverse

Settlement Offer: $5,000.00

On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (collectively, the “Debtors” or “Reorganized Debtors”) filed voluntary cases for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California. The Bankruptcy Court confirmed the Debtors' and Shareholder Proponents' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated June 19, 2020 [Bankr. N.D. Cal. Dkt. No. 8048] (the “Plan”), on June 20, 2020. The Plan became effective on July 1, 2020.

On September 25, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court approved certain procedures the (“General Claims Procedures”) to facilitate the resolution of certain proofs of claim that have been submitted in these chapter 11 cases. Enclosed with this Offer Notice are procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court for the exchange of settlement offers with respect to certain proofs of claim (the “Offer Procedures”). You are required to participate in the Offer Procedures with respect to your proof of claim. Copies of the General Claims Procedures and the Offer Procedures are available for viewing at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge/>.

This Offer Notice includes an offer by the Reorganized Debtors to settle your claim (the “Settlement Offer”). Pursuant to the Offer Procedures, you must respond to the Settlement Offer, and your response must be received by the Reorganized Debtors within twenty-one (21) days of the above-indicated Mailing Date of the Offer Notice (the “Settlement Response Deadline”). The Reorganized Debtors, in their sole discretion, may agree to extend the Settlement Response Deadline.

There are two permitted responses to a Settlement Offer: (i) a signed acceptance, or (ii) a rejection and counteroffer. You are expected, as part of your good faith participation in these Offer Procedures, to submit a counteroffer with any rejection of the Settlement Offer. You should sign your counteroffer and identify the specific amount that you will accept in full settlement and satisfaction of your claim.

The Reorganized Debtors will respond in writing within twenty-one (21) days after the receipt of a counteroffer (the “Counteroffer Response”). The Counteroffer Response will indicate that the Reorganized Debtors either (i) accept the counteroffer, or (ii) reject the counteroffer.

If the Reorganized Debtors reject the counteroffer, they may make a revised settlement offer (a “Revised Settlement Offer”). Alternatively, the Reorganized Debtors may terminate the Offer Procedures. The Reorganized Debtors will indicate which option they have chosen in the Counteroffer Response.

If the Reorganized Debtors reject the Counteroffer without making a Revised Settlement Offer, the Reorganized Debtors will provide you written notification of their rejection, and your claim will, in the Reorganized Debtors’ sole discretion, either be (i) submitted to nonbinding, mandatory mediation, or (ii) resolved through the claims reconciliation and objection process before the Bankruptcy Court.

On September 25, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court approved certain procedures the (“General Claims Procedures”) to facilitate the resolution of certain proofs of claim that have been submitted in these chapter 11 cases. Enclosed with this Offer Notice are procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court for the exchange of settlement offers with respect to certain proofs of claim (the “Offer Procedures”). Thank you for your inquiry.

Our records indicate that no checks have been issued to the claimant Karyn Charmbury. As the claims and noticing agent for the PG&E bankruptcy, Prime Clerk does not have access to the information as to when any payments will be made.

Prime Clerk is the court appointed claims and noticing agent in the chapter 11 cases commenced by PG&E and its primary operating subsidiary (collectively, the "Debtors"). As such, we are not permitted to provide legal or financial advice. We are not authorized to accept claims by email or fax, and any documents or information provided via either of these methods will not constitute a claim in these cases.

Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

Dear Prime Clerk LLC,

You were involved in the offer/counter-offer process on behalf of the debtor PG&E. Emails were used using echosign@echosign.com, which appeared as a Prime Clerk email address. pgeinfo@primeclerk.com was identified in documents as being an information portal. The acceptances of offers were timely submitted via <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/PGE-ADRSettlement Offer/> (the "Portal"). It is as if you did not read any of the attachment I made to the below. Informing me as to receipt of the acceptances and who is the disbursement agent is not providing me legal or financial advice.

Let me quote from the offers: "Questions regarding this Offer Notice of the General Claims Procedure should be directed to the Reorganized Debtors' Claims and Noticing Agent, Prime Clerk LLC, at 944-339-4217 (toll-free), +1 929-333-8977 (international), or by email at pgeinfo@primeclerk.com."

If this information is now proving false, then Prime Clerk LLC may be liable for fraud under the laws of the State of California since my client has reasonably relied on the representations made by you and to her now apparent detriment if she does not receive what was promised her in settlement. You act as the agent for the debtor and you act within the scope of your agency, binding your principal. You can both be jointly and severally liable.

Trying being more helpful in line with your responsibilities as an agent and as no doubt envisioned by the bankruptcy court and the debtor as a debtor-in-possession.

Thank you for your patience, understanding, and anticipated cooperation.

Dear Prime Clerk,

I timely submitted acceptances of four settlement offers on behalf of Karyn Charmbury, claimant, via electronic mail on June 23, 2021. Neither myself nor Ms. Charmbury have received any communication in response to said acceptances. Please advise as to status of acceptances and payment of settlement funds. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Mr. Ullrich,

I am preparing the settlement agreement for the bankruptcy claims for Karyn Charmbury. I need to know the breakdown of the $22,000 in terms of fees. What is not fees will be split into a wage payment and emotional distress payment. The IRS requires us to place at least 1/3 of every employment related settlement as wages. I plan to put both claims resolutions into one agreement. There is a form bankruptcy settlement agreement for bankruptcy claims. I would like to get this out this week as I will be out of the office starting next week for a few weeks.

Thanks

Stacy,

I need to address some issues with you that have come up over time interacting with Prime Pay. To do so, I have to compile an assortment of documents to scan and email to you. However, I have to file my tax returns no later than October 15, so, I really cannot find the time to do this until after I file. I prepare my own tax returns. It does take a while.

Glad to be actually engaged with a "live person" rather than algorithms at Prime Clerk, or so it seemed to me as in "does not compute" when acting outside preset parameters. No "fuzzy logic" there, apparently.

Thank you for your patience.

Stacy,

Yes, I understand you are not with Prime Pay. Prime Pay, LLC, is an entity owned and controlled by Kroll, Inc., and is contracted to provide bankruptcy claim processing for PG&E. You are with PG&E. I did try to work with Prime Pay. That settlement process with Prime Pay is automated (due no doubt to high claim volume). I'll just send you what I have and show you the problem we have been encountering. You can then refer us back to Prime Pay for resolution or to someone else. I had assumed you were an attorney with "system override" powers with respect to drafting the settlement agreement for PG&E, that is, specifically, with respect to the settlement amount.

Thank you for your patience.
